

Board Members

Job Ref: BM.MH.10.18

£3,564 per annum | Southend-on-Sea, Essex

Estuary Housing Association works throughout Essex, three East London Boroughs and into Suffolk, with over 4,400 homes in management, and a Homes England/GLA backed development programme.

We are recruiting Non-Executive Board Members, to join the Estuary Housing Association Board of Management.

Applicants for the positions will need to demonstrate:

- commitment to high standards in governance
- strong leadership qualities
- excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- a passion for excellent service delivery
- a willingness to undertake any relevant training
- a track record of strategic leadership in respect of residential development
- strong commercial skills
- an excellent understanding of the non-executive role
- empathy with our mission and values

We are particularly keen to attract those who can demonstrate key skills and experience gained within a property management (repairs & maintenance) and development environment. Familiarity with the social housing/housing association sector would also be an advantage. We are also seeking to address a gender and diversity imbalance and we welcome applications from BME communities and female applicants.

These posts will require a commitment to attend at least six Board meetings per year at our head office in Southend-on-Sea, a Board away day and, potentially, other committee or subsidiary meetings.

For an informal discussion, please contact Paul Durkin, Chief Executive, on 01702 445203; or George Kieffer, Chair, on 07785 277661.
